

Majorca Daily Bulletin

Sunday-Monday, February 9-10 2014

1€ · Founded 1962 · N.15234 · Passeig de Mallorca 9 A,
Palma 07011

● From Soller to Lord Sugar's Apprentice: P6-7

British airlines planning for a longer summer season in Majorca: Inside

● All the soccer and rugby action: See Sports Inside Today.

The Infanta arrives for court hearing yesterday,

PRINCESS CHANGES ROYAL COURT FOR PALMA COURT

● See Full Reports on Page 3, 4 and 5.

- It was the first time that a Spanish royal had been summoned in a criminal proceeding since the monarchy was restored in 1975.
- King of Spain's daughter is questioned by a Palma judge in a mammoth court hearing.
- Hundreds of protesters shouted slogans calling for a republic, equal justice for all and an end to institutional corruption.
- The Infanta answered preliminary charges of tax fraud and money laundering linked to her use of income from a shell company she co-owned with her husband Inaki Urdangarin.