"It is criminal that this beautiful island is being blighted by Magalluf..."

- Chairman of Monarch/Cosmos Holiday Group, Hugh Morgan calls for action.
- "It is very sad that this fantastic island is having its image damaged by the ongoing situation in

Calvia.—Hugh Morgan, Chairman of the Cosmos/Monarch Travel Group joined the chorus of people who are calling for action on Magalluf.

Morgan, whose company brings tens of thousands of tourists to the island every year, said that it was criminal that this fantastic island was being blighted by Magalluf.

He already warned the Magalluf."

- "It is clearly evident that there is no law and order and it is time that someone stood up to be counted..."
- "What is going on needs to be publicised

Balearic Government that the problems of Magalluf needed to be tackled at the World Travel Market fair in London last November where he met Balearic President Jose

Ramon Bauza. "It is such a shame," he said. The Bulletin today publishes another letter from a regular Magalluf visitor who says that she will not return until the law and order is because I can't believe that no-one is doing anything about it."

- "I applaud the Bulletin on their efforts. It will not put people off Majorca just Magalluf. But it is a nightmare situation..."

sue is resolved. The government did announce yesterday that additional police officers would be sent to the resorts as part of the seasonal policing operation: Inside.
