Hoteliers snubbed over the tourist tax

- Balearic Hotel Federation had wanted to take part in the parliamentary debate on the controversial levy but ruling coalition parties reject the offer.
- Local hoteliers are opposed to the tax claiming that tourists will go elsewhere.

Palma.—Balearic hoteliers were told yesterday that they would be unable to take part in the parliamentary debate involving the tourist tax by two of the parties which form the ruling coalition Balearic government. Hoteliers had said that they wanted to have their say in parliament but the move has been rejected. Local hoteliers are bitterly opposed to the controversial levy. See Inside.

Turkey downs Russian warplane near Syria border

London.—Turkey shot down a Russian warplane near the Syrian border yesterday, saying it had repeatedly violated its air space, one of the most serious publicly acknowledged clashes between a NATO member country and Russia for half a century.

Russian President Vladimir Putin said the plane had been attacked when it was 1 km (0.62 mile) inside Syria and warned of "serious consequences" for what he termed a stab in the back administered by "the accomplices of terrorists." See Full Report on Page 8
