

Majorca Daily Bulletin

Sunday–Monday, January 3–4 2016

1.10€ · Founded 1962 · N.15858 · Passeig de Mallorca 9 A, Palma 07011

Shop sales get underway in Palma

The shop sales got underway in Palma yesterday with discounts of up to 50 percent on many items. Bargain hunters were out in force.

Former child prisoner of war returns to Japan

● Femke Young of Portals Nous has travelled to Japan as a guest of the Japanese government to recount her horror experiences in a Japanese Prisoner of War camp during the Second World War. See Pages 4 and 5 Inside.

Ready for the big parade in Palma

Palma.—One of the floats which will be taking part in the Three Kings parade in Palma on Tuesday night. The preparations for the big parade on Tuesday night are well underway.

FULL INVESTIGATION

British soldiers may face Iraq war prosecutions

● British soldiers may be put on trial for alleged crimes committed in Iraq including murder, the head of a government unit investigating claims of torture and unlawful killing said in an interview published yesterday. There is believed to be sufficient evidence to justify criminal charges, according to some legal sources. See Inside