

Majorca Daily Bulletin

Sunday-Monday, June 12-13 2016

1.10€ · Founded 1962 · N.15992 · Passeig de Mallorca 9 A,
Palma 07011

PALMA SET FOR A RECORD SUMMER

● City hotels in Palma are set to record their best ever year in terms of occupancy, employment, prices (upwards) and profit.

● During the first quarter of the year, there was an increase of almost 11% in jobs in Palma's accommodation sector: see page 3

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

● Princess Charlotte joined her family on the balcony at Buckingham Palace for the first time yesterday as the Queen's official 90th birthday was marked: pages 9-11

England fans “embarrassing,” says Burnham

LONDON. The behaviour of England fans in Marseille is “embarrassing,” given the terror threat faced by France, shadow home secretary Andy Burnham said yesterday.

His remarks followed a second evening when police used tear gas to disperse England fans in Marseille, where England played their opening match last night. Officers in riot gear clashed with fans who threw bottles at police.

Burnham said England fans had been “let down by a minority,” who may have been provoked but were “not blameless.”

In a series of tweets, Labour’s Burnham said when the terror threat in France was taken into account, it made the “behaviour of these England ‘fans’ even more embarrassing.”