Briton held over Sant Llorenç rape

PALMA. A 62-year-old British man has been arrested by the Guardia Civil in Arta and is being detained on a charge of rape.

The incident, which has only now been made public, occurred last week. The female victim was on her way home when she was confronted by the man, who had seemingly been waiting for her. She was threatened with a knife and then forced into a toolshed, where the assault took place. Wounds to her hands and forearms were evidence of resistance.

Following the attack, the woman went to a friend's house to get help, and the Guardia were immediately called in.

The man was arrested two days later.
