

Your full local weather forecast in the Balearics: See Inside

Majorca Daily Bulletin

Thursday, February 22 2018

1.10€ · Founded 1962 · N.16520 · Passeig de Mallorca 9 A, Palma 07011

Opposition party says that schools should be given a language choice: See Page Four

Road safety plan for cyclists launched by Balearic
government:
See Inside
Today

Temperatures plummet as cold front hits Balearics

Big drop in temperatures means that winter is not over just yet.

● Palma Met Office says that freezing weather will continue into the weekend

after temperatures fell by five degrees Centigrade.

PM MAY WANTS EU CITIZENS TO STAY AFTER BREXIT

An anti-Brexit campaign which has been launched in Britain. The bus will be touring the country.

P rime Minister Theresa May said she wants all European Union citizens lawfully living in Britain to remain after Brexit in 2019 and promised a streamlined system for them to register to be able to stay. "They've made a huge contribution to our country, that's why we want them and their families to stay. I'm absolutely clear that EU citizens living lawfully will be able to stay," May said in parliament.

● Home News 3-6 ● What's On 8-9 ● Weather 10 ● Cycling 16-17 ● Sports 27-29