THE MONSTER WAVE

A monster wave measuring the height of a double decker bus was record off the coast of Minorca yesterday as freak weather continued to batter the Balearics. The wave was 12.5 metres high, according to the Met Office which said it was the largest seen in Balearic waters for more than 15 years. The north coast of Majorca was also hit by high waves with Cala San Vicente being in the firing line. The high winds caused havoc in the north of the island and Minorca.
