JULY TRIP

Trump to visit Britain

● U.S. President Donald Trump will visit Britain mid-way through 2018, possibly in July, British newspapers reported yesterday, citing government sources in Washington and London. A spokeswoman for Prime Minister Theresa May's office said officials were still working out the details of a visit by Trump after the Daily Mail, citing a British government source, said that dates in mid-July have been pencilled in. Britain is keen to reinforce its "special relationship" with the United States as May's government prepares to leave the European Union.
