SPAIN'S HIGH COURT AGREES TO EXTRADITE CHAVEZ AIDE TO VENEZUELA

● Spain's High Court has agreed to extradite a Venezuelan woman who was part of the late socialist leader Hugo Chavez's inner circle to her home country, where she is suspected of money laundering and illicit enrichment.

According to Venezuelan media, Claudia Diaz was Chavez's nurse when he was being treated for cancer, which ultimately led to his death in 2013, while her husband served as one of his aides de camp.

From 2011 until 2013, Diaz also served as an executive of government fund Fonden - an obscure state-run investment fund which received more than $100 billion in state revenue but produced little if any documentation as to how the funds were spent.

HEAVY RAIN PUTS DAILY BULLETIN GOLF ON HOLD

● Golfers are a hardy bunch of sportsmen and women but yesterday's torrential rain and storm were just a little too much to contend with and forced the Majorca Daily Bulletin's tournament to be postponed to a later date.
