Labour announce backing for a second Brexit referendum

London.—Labour last night announced they will back a second referendum on Brexit.

Jeremy Corbyn was expected to tell a meeting of Labour MPs that the party will support or put forward an amendment in favour of a public vote to “prevent a damaging Tory Brexit being forced on the country”.

“The prime minister is recklessly running down the clock, in an attempt to force MPs to choose between her botched deal and a disastrous no-deal,” he was due to tell them.

“We cannot and will not accept.”
