

Majorca Daily Bulletin

Wednesday, June 5 2019

1.20€ · Founded 1962 · N.16917 · Passeig de Mallorca 9 A,
Palma 07011

Foreign Office delegation hold talks with local authorities: P4

● Trump promises UK a "phenomenal" post-Brexit trade deal, solution to Huawei discord.

● U.S. President said Britain's public health service should be on the table in future trade talks between the two countries.

● Trump said he had decided not to meet opposition Labour leader Jeremy Corbyn on his trip to Britain.

Spain suspends Franco exhumation planned for Monday

Madrid.— Spain's Supreme Court yesterday suspended the exhumation, planned for June 10, of the remains of former dictator General Francisco Franco from a state mausoleum, pending the result of appeals by his family.

The plan to move the remains away from the Valley of the Fallen site, decided in March by the Socialist government, has divided opinion in a country still conflicted over the dictatorship that ended with Franco's death in 1975.

The court said in a statement that its unanimous decision was meant to avoid Franco's remains being moved before appeals against the exhumation were examined in full.

The Socialists have long sought to turn the Valley of the Fallen just outside Madrid, seen by many as a monument to fascism, into a memorial to victims of the 1936-39 civil war in which about 500,000 combatants and civilians were killed.

The plan was for Franco's remains to be reburied next to his wife in a family tomb.

Following the announcement, the acting Socialist government, which won a national election in April, said it was convinced the Supreme Court would throw out the family's appeals and allow the exhumation to go ahead in the next few months.

Others, including the far-right party Vox, which won seats in regional and national parliaments over the last six months, support leaving the body in the Valley of the Fallen mausoleum.

A SPECIAL RELATIONSHIP

Lower temperatures in May, according to
Met Office: P4