PRESS AIDE FIRED

Javid says he has fantastic relationship with PM Johnson

● Britain's finance minister Sajid Javid said yesterday he had a "fantastic" relationship with Boris Johnson after reports of a furious argument with the prime minister after the sacking of one of his aides.

British media had reported that Javid was "livid" about the firing of his press aide by Johnson's top adviser Dominic Cummings, who was looking into whether government officials had helped opponents of the premier's Brexit plans. Javid said that though it would be inappropriate to directly discuss personnel issues, his views were "well understood" after the media reports. However, he said he got on well with Johnson.
