CHARLOTTE AND GEORGE JOIN SANDRINGHAM SERVICE

● Prince George and Princess Charlotte mingled with the crowds as they attended the Royal Family's Christmas Day church service for the first time yesterday.

Prince Philip, who was released from hospital on Tuesday, did not attend.

A large crowd gathered to greet the Queen and family members as they attended the service at St Mary Magdalene Church in Sandringham.

Prince Andrew, who stepped back from royal duties last month, kept a low profile at the event.

TWO BRITISH BILLIONAIRES EXPAND BALEARIC PORTFOLIO

● According to the Sunday Times Rich List 2019, David and Simon Reuben and their family had an estimated personal net worth of £18.664 billion, an increase of £3.568 billion on the previous year. This makes them Britain's second wealthiest family.

Palma.—David Reuben and Simon Reuben are British businessmen and philanthropists who appear to have a deep passion for the Balearics.

In May 2019, they were named as the second richest family in the UK by the Sunday Times Rich List with a net worth of £18.664 billion and they have just expanded their property portfolio in the Balearics.

Having bought another substantial property in Majorca this summer, they have just increased their investment footprint in Ibiza with the acquisition of El Hotel Pacha and have entered into a leaseback of the property to Grupo Pacha.

The Reubens have also formed a strategic partnership with Grupo Pacha to facilitate expansion of Pacha branded hotels and venues globally.
