SPAIN TO TOP UP INCOMES OF POOREST AS CORONAVIRUS HITS LIVELIHOODS

● An income support programme approved by the Spanish government on Friday to help those most vulnerable during the coronavirus pandemic is a step in the right direction in a country that has long lacked a proper social safety net, analysts have said. Spain is among the countries worst hit by the virus and the scheme is designed to provide a minimum income for about 2.5 million of its poorest citizens after months of strict lockdown that have sent unemployment skyrocketing. See Page 2

Dear friends and customers, we have reopened the terraces.
There are not many places available, but we have a lot of enthusiasm and a new menu to offer you

The entire team at Ola del Mar appreciates the support received from customers, friends and suppliers.
Thank you very much
