

YOUR FULL FIVE-DAY WEATHER FORECAST: SEE INSIDE

Majorca Daily Bulletin

Wednesday, August 19 2020

1.20€ · Founded 1962 · N.17298 · Passeig de Mallorca 9 A, Palma 07011

Two more deaths from the coronavirus in Balearics

The Ministry of Health confirmed 2 new coronavirus deaths in the Balearic Islands yesterday, taking the total to 233. Another 235 new Covid-19 infections were also reported in the last 24 hours and there are now a total of 1,545 active coronavirus cases in the Balearic Islands.

155 patients were declared virus free yesterday and 3,012 people have beaten the disease.

The Health Service is treating 2,847 people for coronavirus infection; 152 are hospitalised, 19 are in the ICU and 2,695 are receiving Primary Care at home.

In Majorca, 139 are hospitalised, 18 are in Intensive Care Units and 2,446 people are receiving care at home.

In Minorca, one person has been admitted to the ICU at Mateu Orfila Hospital and 47 are receiving care at home.

In Ibiza, 12 are hospitalised and 179 are receiving care at home.

In Formentera, 23 people are receiving care at home.

353 Healthcare Professionals are under surveillance; 284 in Majorca and 69 in Ibiza.

There are also 92 active infections; 76 in Majorca, 1 in Minorca and 15 in Ibiza.

Self-employed federation's "SOS" to the Spanish government

● The latest survey by the National Federation of Self-Employed Workers Associations indicates that 72% of the self-employed would consider closing their businesses or reducing their workforces in the event of a new lockdown.

● See Page Five Inside.

Ronaldo's dinner date in Deya

Cristiano Ronaldo had dinner with friends and family at the Hotel La Residencia on Sunday before heading back to his luxury yacht to continue with his Mediterranean cruise. Ronaldo spent the weekend in Deya.

Depression on the increase

The proportion of people in Britain suffering with depression has almost doubled during the COVID-19 pandemic, official data showed yesterday.

The Office for National Statistics (ONS) said 19% of adults reported some form of depression during June, compared with 10% in the nine months to March 2020. Stress and anxiety were the most common types of depression listed by people.

Tourist industry left counting big losses: See Page 3

