2 name ship

London.—She is rather a unique vessel. During six months of the year is a floating class-room called World Odyssey and for the rest of the year she operates as a traditional cruise ship called Deutschland. Presently she is moored in the Bay of Palma.

The ship carries 513 passengers and 260 crew members. She has a gross tonnage of 22,400 and has seven passenger accessible decks.

In 2000, Air France Flight 4590 crashed near Paris. The Concorde charter flight had been carrying passengers for a sixteen-day cruise to South America on board MS Deutschland.

TOO LITTLE, TOO LATE?

- The Spanish tourism promotional authority, Turespaña, has launched a promotion drive in Britain to underline the fact that Spain is a safe holiday destination and that teenagers no longer need to have both vaccinations.
- The campaign comes after hoteliers warned, just before the measure was scrapped, that the double vaccination requirement had dented family bookings to Spain with British families going to competing resorts in countries. Inside
