Palma.—The Crown is back in Mallorca, filming for Series 6 which will be screened on Netflix next year. Shooting this week has centred on two key areas: Son Bonet aerodrome on the outskirts of Palma and in Andratx.

Son Bonet was transformed into the Caribbean island of Mustique, much loved by the late Princess Margaret.

Filming appeared to show the arrival of Princess Margaret, played by Lesley Manville, on the Caribbean island.

In Andratx, scenes involving Dodi Al Fayed (Khalid Abdalla) were being filmed on a yacht and at a house in Cala Llamp. Dodi's former girlfriend, Kelly Fisher (Erin Richards), was also involved.

The Crown will be filming on the island for at least a month at different venues. Some scenes for series 5 of the popular Netflix series were shot on the island last year. Hundreds of extras have been employed and local production company, Palma Pictures, is playing a key role in the production.
