THE LONG WAIT

● A delay of an hour to clear immigration controls at Palma airport and passengers are not impressed.

Palma.—British travellers using Palma airport this winter are facing massive queues at the immigration area, according to eyewitness reports. A lack of police at the desks and the fact that British travellers now have to show their passports have been blamed for the long delays.

This is an email we received from a Bulletin online reader: “Regular visitors/residents will be aware – for the winter flight season from the end of October through to the end of March, United Kingdom to Mallorca flights move from Palma’s airport’s Terminal A to Terminal C.

“Whilst Terminal C is actually rather nicer and more modern than Terminal A, the arrival queues for the two winter UK arrivals immigration desks at Terminal C have been enormous. I fly weekly from London to Palma throughout the winter, and it has regularly taken passengers 30-60 minutes to clear immigration – for UK and EU passport holders alike. Passengers look furious – myself included.

“The Balearic Government constantly talk about the importance of ‘extending the season’ and the significance of winter tourism. They should put their money where their mouth is and sort this mess out.”

A similar state of affairs happened at the airport during the summer with long queues until extra officers were recruited to handle British flights.

THIRD LETTER BOMB DISCOVERED IN SPAIN

Madrid.—Spanish security forces found a third suspected explosive device hidden in an envelope mailed to a European Union satellite centre located at an air force base in Torrejon de Ardoz, outside Madrid, the defence ministry said on Thursday. After scanning the envelope by X-ray, air force security officers determined it contained “a mechanism”, the ministry statement said.
