Scores of Bulletin readers came together for a Christmas lunch this week at the Can Eduardo restaurant in Palma. They were served a traditional Christmas meal with all the trimmings. The event proved to be a great success and our sincere thanks to the team at Can Eduardo.

Happy Christmas from the Bulletin

MALLORCA TURKEY LOVERS ARE STUFFED

Palma.—This year's Christmas menus will not include turkeys or ducks from Mallorca because there is no authorised slaughterhouse for them. In mid-November, the Inca farmers' cooperative took over the slaughterhouse in the municipality. It is the only one authorised to slaughter poultry, but the health ministry prohibited the slaughter of turkeys and ducks.

In Búger, Joan Siquier is one of the largest poultry breeders in Mallorca. A year ago, he stopped raising turkeys and ducks because authorised slaughter was impossible. He says that he used to sell 50 or 60 ducks and around 25 turkeys a week for the festive period. That was before problems arose with taking them to the slaughterhouse.

He explains that some weeks it was possible; other weeks it wasn't. "There was total uncertainty. We reduced production and a year ago we stopped it completely."

His farm now only produces chickens and guinea fowl.
